With spectacular views of the bay of Pollença, the marina and the mountains, this luxurious newly built villa sits on the seafront and impresses not only with its fantastic location but also with its modern design and elegant architecture. The living space of approx. 560 m² is spread over three floors and comprises four bedrooms and five bathrooms. A clear line, large sliding windows and open plan construction in combination with natural stone and wood elements give the villa a unique life style feeling. Almost every room offers incredible sea views. The terraces and a magnificent infinity pool boast also great sea views and offer plenty of space to relax and enjoy the maritime ambience. In the outdoor area you can also find a garden and a large garage."
