Discover the timeless charm of this exceptional village house, an architectural jewel from 1890 that has been restored with infinite love and dedication, preserving every detail of its historic soul. This ancient construction, which whispers stories from the past in every corner, offers a unique living experience where authentic character meets modern comfort. With its 500 m² built area and 435 m² useful space distributed across two floors, this property embraces its inhabitants with the warmth of its thick stone walls and the unmistakable personality that only century-old constructions can offer. Its four spacious bedrooms and three full bathrooms create intimate spaces where light filters gently, creating an enveloping, cozy atmosphere that invites rest and contemplation. The magic of this residence lies precisely in its sheltered and welcoming character, where each room tells a different story and natural light is distributed selectively, creating dreamlike corners that awaken the senses. The original fireplace stands as the heart of the home, promising unforgettable evenings by the fire, while the terrace and balcony offer views that connect with the purest essence of the surroundings. The private garden and pool transform this refuge into a personal oasis, complemented by a 1,117 m² plot that guarantees absolute privacy and multiple possibilities. The included garage space and storage room add practical functionality to this architectural masterpiece, while the built-in wardrobes and fully equipped kitchen demonstrate that no detail has been overlooked. The south-west orientation selectively bathes the spaces with golden light during the most beautiful hours of the day, while air conditioning and individual electric heating ensure comfort in all seasons. This second-hand property in excellent condition represents a unique opportunity to own a piece of history, where each day is lived as an extraordinary experience.
